

GUMBY 3D MOTION CLOCK

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Insert 2 AA batteries.
  - a. Unlike most electronics that use batteries, make sure the positive ends are pointing in the SAME direction, not in opposite directions (see illustration).
  - b. Do not use Duracell batteries because they will not fit easily into the battery case.
2. Adjust the time using the wheel on the back. The wheel is located inside the clock body, just above the batteries.
3. Hang the clock on a wall or other flat surface. Make sure that the wall is perfectly vertical, and that the body of the clock hangs flat against the wall.

TROUBLESHOOTING

Arm will not swing.

1. Make sure the clock hangs perfectly vertical, and that the arm isn't scraping against anything.
2. If the arm is swinging freely, check the bottom battery (the bottom battery powers the arm pendulum).
  - a. Make sure the bottom battery has a full charge.
  - b. Make sure the bottom battery was installed pointing in the right direction (see illustration).
  - c. Spin the battery to ensure electrical contact.

Clock will not keep time.

1. Make sure the top battery has a full charge (the top battery powers the timepiece, while the bottom battery powers the arm pendulum).
2. Make sure the top battery was installed pointing in the right direction (see illustration).
3. Spin the battery to ensure electrical contact.

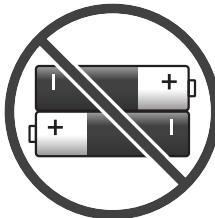

If following the steps above did not fix the problem,
